LONDON HOXTON

WHERE ART MEETS HOTEL

art'otel London Hoxton is an award-winning, art-inspired hotel which fuses contemporary culture, immersive design and world-class hospitality. With interiors by Signature Artist D*Face, every space makes a statement and is the perfect backdrop for your event, whatever the size.

From the 135 sqm ground floor art gallery to the skyline views on the 25th floor, art'otel London Hoxton is designed for storytelling. Featuring 357 bedrooms and suites across 26 floors, each space blends bold artistic expression with comfort and functionality. Highlights include:

- The Panorama events space on the 24th floor with sweeping views across the city
- Our destination restaurant Solaya, perched on the 25th floor, offers contemporary cuisine in a setting as impressive as your guest list.
- A 60-seat screening room ideal for private viewings, interviews and Q&As
- The ground floor Art Gallery – a spacious double height space in which to show your creativity – from immersive art exhibitions to cocktail receptions.

WE'LL TAKE CARE OF EVERYTHING

There's seriously no other venue in London that feels like this. From product launches and private dinners to film screenings and fashion shows, our flexible event spaces combine bold design with unbeatable views and service. You bring the vision – we'll take care of everything.

SOLAYA

25th floor

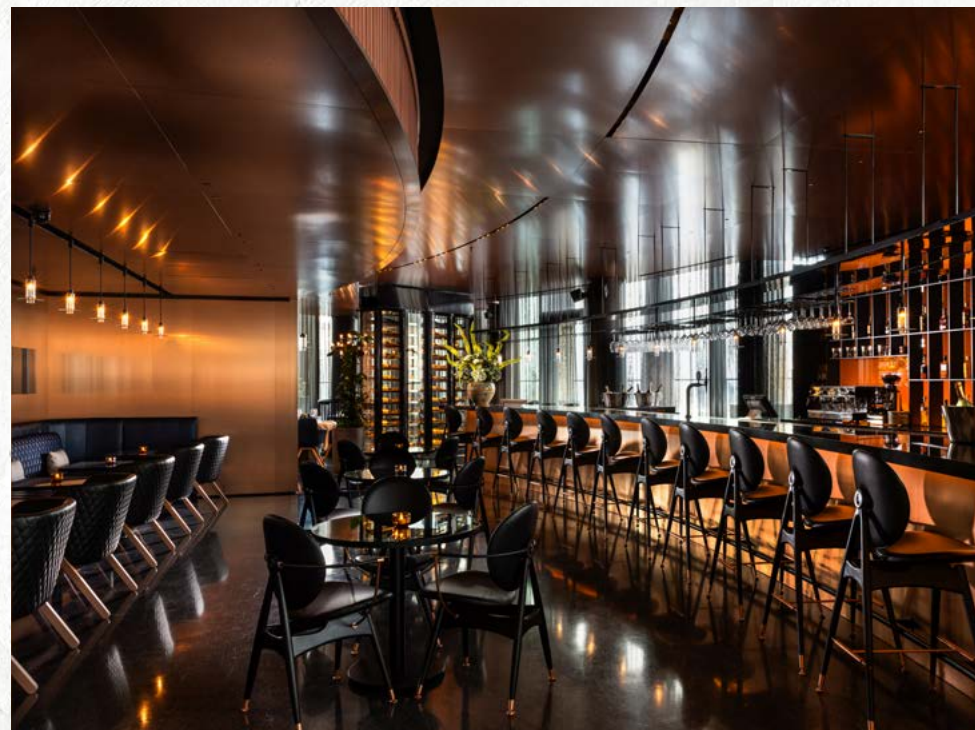

SOLAYA

Solaya is a French-Mediterranean restaurant and bar led by Michelin-starred chef Kenny Atkinson. The restaurant is inspired by the sun-drenched flavours of Southern France and the Mediterranean, blending seasonal plates with a modern twist.

Located on the 25th floor, Solaya offers panoramic views of London's skyline from its 360-degree circular layout. Inspired by the restaurant's name, which draws connotations from the sun, the menu features flavour-led dishes with simplified plating, designed to be seasonal and embody "sunshine on a plate" all year round.

Solaya can host truly standout events designed to satisfy the most discerning of tastes.

BEDROOMS

Bedrooms at art'otel London Hoxton are stylish, spacious, and designed for ultimate comfort.

With bold art, luxurious bedding, blackout blinds and curtains, and workspaces, they're perfect for delegates to unwind or stay productive. Whether you're attending a business meeting or a glittering social event, retreating to these thoughtfully curated rooms ensures a restful night and a recharged morning, just moments from all the action within the hotel.

ONE RIVINGTON

A wide-angle photograph of a modern, empty office space. The room features a polished, light-colored floor that reflects the natural light coming from large windows. The windows are framed in dark metal and offer a view of a cityscape with various buildings. The ceiling is white and has exposed red pipes and black metal brackets holding track lighting. A few potted plants are visible near the windows on the left. The overall atmosphere is clean, bright, and professional.

Spread across five versatile floors, One Rivington offers a dynamic, design-led space ideal for fashion shows, product launches, and temporary exhibitions.

With high ceilings, industrial-chic finishes, and flexible layouts, it's a blank canvas ready to transform. Whether you're showcasing a new collection, unveiling a product, or curating an immersive brand experience, One Rivington provides the perfect backdrop in the heart of art'otel London Hoxton's creative energy.

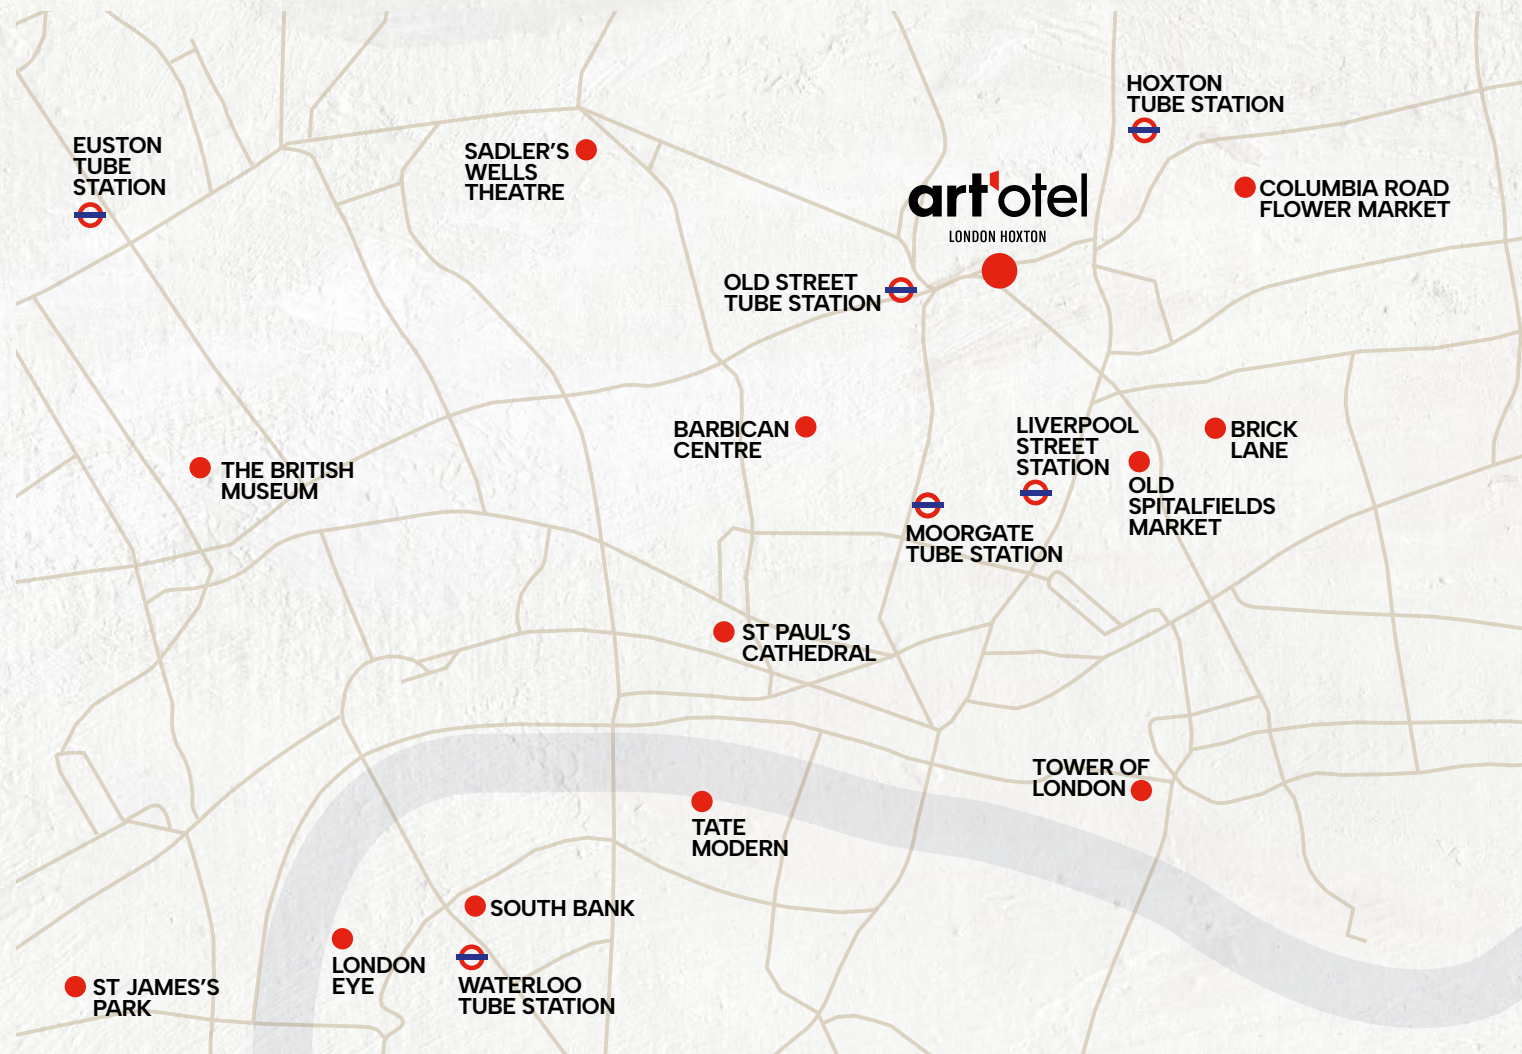

THE SPA

The luxurious spa offers a range of treatments for ultimate relaxation, while the serene pool provides a calming escape.

Whether for corporate retreats or social celebrations, these wellness and cultural offerings add depth, inspiration, and well-being to any event, making it truly memorable and refreshingly different from traditional venues.
